Have you ever noticed the difference between the modern church and Yeshua's small discipling group that traveled around and had no building? The congregation of the Scripture is different in many ways from modern practices. What is the congregation supposed to be like according to Scripture? How can we put that into practice today? This information is discussed here in a succinct and practical manner, with references to the Scripture. It is based largely on I Corinthians. The detailed documentation is provided in the series, "Yeshua's Path" by the same author, Vol. 2, Corinthians. 1 Corinthians 14:24-26, "And if all of you would prophesy and an unlearned one or one who does not believe enters, he is examined by all of you and reproved by all of you 25 and the hidden things of his heart are revealed. And then he will fall on his face and will worship God and will say, "Truly God is with you." 26 Therefore, my brothers, I say that when you are gathered, whoever of you has a psalm should speak. And he who has a teaching and he who has a revelation and he who has a tongue and he who has an interpretation, all of them should be for building up."
