Le donne del peccato (Narrativa) (Italian Edition) Samar Al, Mogren, B. Teresi

Questo romanzo breve di Samar Al-Mogren, scrittrice saudita che si batte in patria per la difesa dei diritti delle donne, è la testimonianza di una repressione non solo politica ma umana, affettiva, una repressione dei sentimenti e della dignità della donna che colpisce la vita privata di milioni di persone in Arabia Saudita e in molti Paesi islamici. Sara e Ra'if si sono conosciuti in Rete. Hanno deciso di incontrarsi a Londra. Si sono innamorati, promettendosi l'uno all'altra. Ma quando si ritrovano a Riyad il loro sentimento diventa una scommessa che può costare cara. La Commissione per l'esortazione al bene e la negazione del male ha il compito di controllare e reprimere i comportamenti non conformi alla legge islamica, la shari'a. Chi si macchia di colpe contro la morale viene punito con anni di carcere e con pene corporali, e quando avrà scontato la pena giudiziaria dovrà affrontare la punizione sociale, l'emarginazione, il deterioramento o la perdita dei legami affettivi più importanti. "Le donne del peccato" è un libro che ha sconvolto la parte illuminata del mondo arabo, una prova di intensa forza narrativa che lancia un grido per il diritto delle donne al piacere, all'amore e alla libertà.
