La religión ante la ley: Manual de Derecho eclesiástico (Spanish Edition) José María Martí
«La religión ante la ley. Manual de Derecho eclesiástico» parte de que la religión ordena la vida y puede contribuir a la cultura, a un mundo más humano

En el ámbito privado, el ritmo familiar está frecuentemente pautado por la religión: celebración del matrimonio y otros acontecimientos decisivos, festividades, peregrinaciones, uso de indumentarias o signos característicos, etc. En este nivel, el Derecho se ve interpelado y debe decidir qué relevancia dar a tales manifestaciones, así como al deseo de recibir cierta formación o asistencia religiosa.

El Estado social debe contribuir a la libertad religiosa, mas suelen ser las instituciones religiosas las que canalizan y satisfacen las aspiraciones espirituales del pueblo. ¿Habría que otorgarles por ello reconocimiento y viabilidad económica? Por otro lado, los templos, el personal, las acciones y los símbolos religiosos, piden un estatuto legal de respeto, libertad y, ocasionalmente, de apoyo.

Esta obra afronta, con una visión amplia, tales cuestiones y explica la respuesta del Derecho español. Por esta razón, creemos que puede ser de ayuda, para el estudio del Derecho eclesiástico vivo, con la jurisprudencia como su punta de lanza.
