The Course: A Play Brendan O'Carroll

An assorted group of no-hopers sign on for a Positive Mental Attitude course run by a conman -- but then the bona fide American supervisor arrives, threatening to shut down the course unless five out of six participants pass the test. The participants -- including a prostitute, a resting actor, a golf widow -- rise to the challenge, with unexpected results. High farce and a feelgood ending. Brendan O'Carroll's first play which he wrote, directed and starred in.
