ISLAND OF SHALAMAR is a Two-Act Play for Youth Theater, High School and Junior High, Church Programs, and Community Theater.

While King Kristof sits on his throne enjoying peace, the kingdom of Shalamar is under attack by Brendoor. Prince Tanner implores his father to do something NOW! But Kristof waits too long. Brendoor commandeers the island's only bridge. Then Queen Terise arrives with her selfish, spoiled daughter and a plan to merge their countries into one—Shalabrendoor. In the midst of pomp and pageantry, goodness and evil come to light in this medieval allegory.

Island of Shalamar has a cast of 13. For more information, including a full synopsis and sample scene, tips for the director, and royalty information visit www.4thofjulyproductions.com
