If I Should Die Jennie Hansen

One morning on a routine jog, Kallene's running partner, Linda, confides that she's filing for divorce. The next morning, she's gone without a trace, leaving behind her frightened young daughter. Since Linda's enraged husband refuses to notify the police, Kallene steps in to initiate a missing person search, not knowing it would soon become a murder investigation—or that she'd soon fall for the charming lead detective. With Linda's handsome brother also on her mind, Kallene must navigate the rapids of a double romance as well as the deepening suspicion in her upscale Utah neighborhood. Intrigue turns to danger as Kallene faces the consequences of hasty judgments. And when startling new evidence casts Linda's murder as the work of a determined killer, Kallene needs the intervention of unlikely heroes to avoid being the next victim.
