O Refúgio do Sr. Darcy (Portuguese Edition) Abigail Reynolds

Presos por três dias por causa de uma inundação e presos para sempre, por causa de regras da sociedade...

É uma noite escura e tempestuosa, quando o Sr. Darcy propõe casamento para Elizabeth Bennet, da maneira mais insultuosa. Assim que ela começa a explicar para ele que ela não pode aceitar a proposta, eles ouvem uma batida na porta como uma grande trovoadas: são os moradores da vila inundada de Hunsford, buscando refúgio da tempestade na tranqüila casa paroquial no topo da colina. Para piorar, a inundação destruiu a única ponte que conduz a Rosings Park, deixando Darcy preso com Elizabeth. O rio não é a única coisa que transborda em Hunsford quando Darcy e Elizabeth são forçados a trabalhar juntos para lidar com a crise sob as piores condições possíveis. E já pode ser tarde demais para resgatar a reputação de Elizabeth...

Nesta variação do livro “Orgulho e Preconceito”, a linha que divide Hunsford de Rosings Park foi substituída pela inundação de um dos rios em Kent. As tempestades são reais: na primavera de 1811 aconteceram numerosas e extraordinárias tempestades no sudeste da Inglaterra.
