Journeys to Ancient Worlds: What Modern Man Can Learn from Ancient Civilisations Richard J Oldale

There is a misconception about South America. The same can be said about the history of mankind. Combine the two and an entirely different story develops. Journeys to Ancient Worlds asks the questions - and finds the answers - that shatter the illusion of orthodox history. From the sophisticated engineering works of Peru and Bolivia to the extraordinary knowledge of astronomy found in Mesoamerica, this fascinating book serves as a travel guide that takes you on a voyage of discovery – not only of ancient cultures and their “impossible” temples, but of mankind as a species. We have a mysterious relationship with the Universe, and when you learn to connect with nature, you discover a new you. Witty, informative and enlightening, What Modern Man Can Learn From Ancient Civilisations is essential reading for travellers brave enough to explore countries and cultures you know little about – but more importantly, it awakens you to the fact that you have to discover your inner-self!
