Excerpt from The Poor Man's Morning Portion: Being a Selection of a Verse of Scripture With Short Observations for Every Day of the Year; Intended for the Use of the Poor in Spirit Who Are Rich in Faith and Heirs of the Kingdom

The title-page of this humble work sufficiently explains itself. It is designed as a means, in the divine hand, to promote the Redeemer's glory, and his people's happiness. It hath often struck me, that such a method, under the blessing of the Lord, might prove eminently useful. By publishing in this way, in little penny books, some sweet portion of Scripture, for every day in the year, it might come within the reach of all pockets, be within the reach of all hands, and bid fair to be read, when larger books are laid aside, and forgotten.

It was, indeed, with the same view, that some few years since I sent forth a Diary of this kind. But, in that work, the selection was confined wholly to the Promises. Experience hath since shown, that reference may be occasionally had, with great advantage, to other parts of the word of God.
