Interpretation in Polish, German and European Private Law

Interpretation in Polish, German and European Private Law

In the daily work of lawyers, the interpretation of declarations of intent and contracts is a very difficult task, especially with regard to crossborder partners. This book contains informative proceedings from an international conference - held in Katowice, Poland - on the legal interpretation of private law in various legal regions. Topics include: the interpretation of foreign law by German courts * theories of interpretation in private law * the interpretation of contract under the German BGB and under the CFR * the interpretation of the juridical acts - a comparative perspective * the "common" interpretation of national law * iuris cogentis and iuris dispositivi rules/provisions in contract law and in corporate law * the relevance of circumstances in which the contract was concluded to contract interpretation under the DCFR (II. - 8:102) * Is there one true interpretation of a law? * Is the wording of the law a limitation for its interpretation?
