Kendra doesn't need rescued.

Kendra Maddox isn't thrilled when Stetson Wright steps in to help fend off her overanxious date at a wedding. A new Christian, she's struggling with a promiscuous past, and Stetson's firm belief that true love waits only makes his gallant attempt to defend her honor even more unwanted. Then her friends continually push her and Stetson together. . .but can't they see she'll never be good enough for him?

Stetson doesn't need any distractions. And Kendra Maddox is definitely a distraction. From his job as the new youth director at church to moonlighting as a rodeo clown, Stetson has other things to think about. Finding the perfect wife will have to wait.

When Stetson saves a prominent bull rider, he makes headline news, and Kendra's ad agency is hired to promote the rodeo hero. Attraction simmers, but will they be able to accept each other for who God sees?
