An American Jungian: In Honor of Edward F. Edinger George R. Elder, Dianne D. Cordic

This extraordinary compilation brings together essays and reviews by Dr. Edinger together with appreciations by others of his work and interviews with him. None of it has previously been published in book form.

Edward F. Edinger was such a significant presence in the worldwide Jungian community that this volume can only begin to assess his greatness as an interpreter of Jung's work and his dedication to the significance of Analytical psychology but it well illustrates his worth.
