Universal Restoration: God's Promise to Restore All Things to Perfection Delbert Burhans

This is the Bible story of God promising to restore the Earth, sky, and people of this planet to perfection. We will be forgiven and immortalized in the earth made new. All of our family and friends will make it to the kingdom in due time. God will reward us in our new roles as co-rulers of the universe. The Bible rightly understood gives a happy ending to the sin problem with God as the winner. God will be totally successful in saving the lost of this world. God has promised to make all things new. God is love and he loves each one of us very tenderly. God desires the best outcome for each of our lives. The enemy will be overcome by the goodness of God. The whole universe will radiate the joy and love of God in the Earth made new. God is good.

Our purpose in this life is to honor God and be helpful to people so as to invest treasure in heaven. God does not forget our good deeds. He will reward each person according as they have lived. Some of us will be greatest and some of us will be the least in the kingdom of God. But we will all finally be there. God's fire of love will enable the wicked on judgment day to fully repent of sin. They will all bow down and confess that Jesus Christ is Lord. They die the second death and are born again into the kingdom of God. Our lost family members will be restored to us.
