A batalha de todo homem: 1 (Portuguese Edition) Stephen Arterburn

Ao visitar sites pornográficos, admirar as fotos das revistas eróticas ou despir com os olhos uma mulher diferente daquela com a qual estabeleceu uma aliança diante do Senhor, o homem comete o pecado do adultério, mesmo que não leve nenhuma outra para a cama. Chamados por Deus para viver o sexo em sua forma mais pura - através do casamento -, muitos cristãos (inclusive líderes de igrejas) estão fazendo pouco caso de um problema com potencial para destruir casamentos e ministérios. Esta denúncia dá o tom de A batalha de todo homem, um sucesso de Stephen Arterburn e Fred Stoeker que até hoje frequenta as listas de livros cristãos mais vendidos nos Estados Unidos. Com a autoridade de quem já passou pelo mesmo tipo de experiência e superou com fé, convicção e disciplina, os autores mostram que um simples olhar ou pensamento pode ser suficiente para levar um homem a quebrar os laços de santidade que o unem à sua esposa. Arterburn e Stoeker - autores de O Desejo de Toda Mulher - fazem uma análise franca e sem rodeios sobre o tema, não apenas mostrando a realidade do problema, mas também sinalizando com soluções para que o homem de Deus controle seus olhos, sua mente e seu coração e seja capaz de resistir à tentação, recuperando a dignidade de sua união com a única mulher a quem deve dedicar toda atenção, estima, carinho, amor e desejo: sua esposa. Sejam sinceros: não é preciso muito para levar um homem - mesmo casado e cristão - a se sentir sexualmente excitado. Um outdoor de lingerie na avenida principal que o leva ao trabalho. O contato frequente com a vizinha atraente que malha na academia. As belas atrizes em cenas com forte apelo sexual dos programas de televisão ou dos filmes no cinema. Enfim, uma lista quase interminável. Quando menos espera, ele esquece da vida e fantasia uma experiência extraconjugal. E se engana quem pensa que o fato de não levar uma daquelas mulheres para um motel muda a situação.
