Church Representation Rules 2004 unknown

"The Church Representation Rules" are an important tool for all those involved in parochial, diocesan and national Church governance. They were fully authorized in the Synodical Government Measure of 1969 but they have been continually updated since then. This edition includes: new provisions relating to the number of elected representatives on parochial church councils; rules for maintaining the electoral roll; procedures for the annual parochial church meeting; and provisions relating to parochial church councils and to elections to the deanery and diocesan synods and House of Laity of the General Synod.
